ACADEMY NINE MAKES GOOD START

Gallivan Holds Mystic Down—N. F. A. the Winner, 11 to 4—Pittsburg and Chicago Win Sunday Games—Big Field for Boston Marathon Tomorrow—Plexo Duck-pin Five is Chosen.

Starting with a home run over center field fence by First Baseman Kennedy the Academy for half the game Saturday afternoon on the campus, but Captain Hendrick and his men were right from the fighting spirit and finally pulled out victory, 11 to 4, in their opening game of the season. Mystic started with Noyes in the box, a left hander, who did well for five innings, but the Academy got to him in the sixth. A couple of errors by the fielders sent him soaring and he fanned places with Third Baseman Farnell after he had passed Jay Ricketts and hit brother Steve. Off Farnell, who twirled the last two, the Academy made five of their eleven hits.

It was easily the best opening game that the Academy has shown in several years and bore the unmistakable stamp of Coach Aultman's vigorous coaching. The infield showed an ability to handle the ball well and the nerve to try successfully the plays they have been drilled in. Catcher Ricketts and Captain Hendrick at short worked the short throw trick and nailed Burnham at the plate in the second inning. Ricketts, Murray, Crocker, Burnham and Noyes finished the contest by running down Kennedy between the foul line. Hendrick, Jay put triple in the same direction but spared the windows, and also eluded a fast single by Crocker. Noyes and Gallivan, each with a double, were the others of the home team to hit for more than a base. Altogether the showing of the first game promised a fast work-out for the Academy and the development of a good pitcher.

Jackie Gallivan, a fine line limit base from league games, was in the box for the Academy and had the game well in hand, although he had made a bad start on some freakish errors that counted in Mystic's run scoring. After Kennedy pulled off the surprise home run, the first in the Academy's history, Jackie went after the Mystic first baseman, causing him to whiff out the next and third runs in the eighth and ninth.

A grounder from Moll, fumbled by the third base man, the home crowd of 300 their first chance to cheer and cheer they did. The Academy rolled a slow one to second on which Jay scored, although Mabbitt got to him in the first preferred 1. Kennedy and Noyes fanned out for a double. The market closed irregular. The aggressive advance in the copper stocks was of slight effect on the general list. In Rubber, the current heavy sales of copper metal as a result of the week's cut in prices. The speculation in general was inclined to the extent to which public interest in stocks has been aroused by this week's rise. Federal Mining preferred sold at an advance of 3-4. Amalgamated 2-3. American Smelting & Anaconda 1-1-2 and Utah Copper 1-1-4. Profit taking sales caused recessions in the late dealings.

STOCKS.
Salem, Apr. 16—10-10 a. m.—Opening prices of stocks showed mixed changes and the trading was quite quiet. fact, it is stated that the baseball fever is more prevalent now in the mill village than for many seasons past. Manager A. M. Moller had two teams lined up against each other on the Providence street grounds, the first team having the veterans and the regulars was Bill Boucher, who reached town Friday night ready for work. Boucher, whom he would like to see in standard form. He is about 20 pounds lighter this year than last, weighing about 170. Outfielder Emerson was behind the bat, and although he did well, the clever work of Moller on the other team shows that he will have a "close rival. Backer Larowe was out in right field keeping tabs on things and in the left garden Manager Moller was watching his men at work. Trotter, at first and Leopol at second base were in the old places, and at third and short were Dugan and Hofer, both with Moller last year. Vic Caron was on second base.
